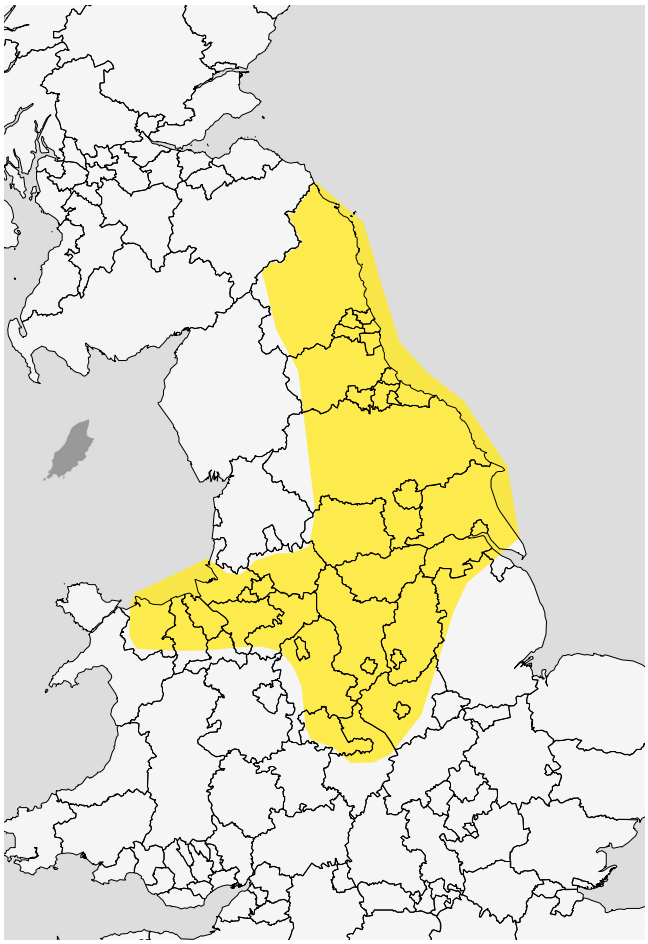
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
00:00 Thu 17 Nov 2022 and
23:59 Thu 17 Nov 2022



Heavy rain leading to a small chance of flooding and disruption.

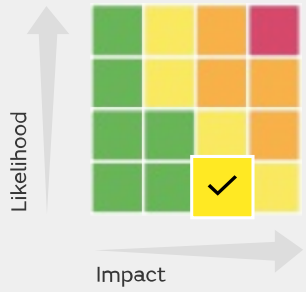
What to expect

- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Should flooding occur, delays or cancellations to train and bus services are likely
- There is a small chance that some communities may be temporarily cut off by flooded roads

Further details

Outbreaks of rain, heavy at times, will move northwards across the Midlands, north Wales and northern England during Wednesday night, persisting through much of Thursday. 30 to 40 mm rain is likely to fall quite widely over a 24-hour period, with a small chance over 60 mm in a few places and perhaps as much as 80 mm over higher ground. This brings a chance of flooding and disruption.

The rain is expected to become less widespread and more intermittent during Thursday night.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts
